President's Message

Hi fellow Capitol Woodcarvers

I know all of you have been at home anxiously awaiting the "president's comments"...right?

Please be forewarned though, that as I was writing, Barb sneezed near me, so please stay at least six feet away from your screen as you read this. I suppose, these current events we are dealing with are not really a joking matter, but we do need to maintain an element of sanity. Of course, in my case, I'd have to find it, before maintaining it.

Seriously though, I was going to share some philosophical thoughts on some positive aspects of these times, but I figured you don't need that kind of stuff from me. So I'm going to cut this message short, wish you health, happiness, and hope for a quick return to an element of normalcy.

Let's all keep in touch, support each other, and hopefully be able to make chips together soon.

Remember, a good way to find or share Club information is through our website: capitolwoodcarvers.org. Click on the "News" tab for updates. If you have some news to post, you can always submit it to Bob Curtis, our webmaster: bcurtis97304@gmail.com. If you have a message to be emailed to the entire membership, you can send it to me at: capitolwoodcarvers@gmail.com.

Stay healthy and of course...

Stay Chipper

Don

April Meeting

April 28 Club Meeting | 7:00PM | Center 50+

Cancelled

Meet Bob Karr

Meet Bob Karr

Bob is relatively new to carving, having started in 2017. He became interested when he attended a carving show in Santa Maria, CA, and ultimately joined a carvers club there. He and his wife Linda moved to Oregon, got settled in, and joined Capitol Woodcarvers in 2018.

Bob says he has very little artistic background so he is trying different projects to find out what he enjoys and what matches his skill level. He finds faces to be a mystery and challenging. Besides carving he likes reading, woodworking, and fishing.

Bob retired 20+ years ago from Argonaut Groups Inc, where he was director of facilities and real estate.

Bob's family consists of his wife Linda, 5 children, 15 grandchildren and 8 great grandchildren.

Virtual Capitol Woodcarvers Show

Virtual

Show

We are all disappointed that our Annual Show did not happen last weekend but we understand the need to be safe.

Most of us have been preparing for the Show for some time. It would be a shame if we could not share what we have been working on. We decided to help members share their efforts in a Virtual Show hosted on the Capitol Woodcarvers web site.

You can visit the Virtual Show at:

<https://capitolwoodcarvers.org/virtualshow.php>.

We know this does not replace the action, participation, energy, etc. provided by an actual show but at least others will see your work.

Please visit the Virtual Show and tell your friends about it.
